BIO

Brendan Newitt, LL.M. is mostly active within the financial-economic criminal practice, in which he assists companies, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and individuals. As a lawyer he has been involved in many large-scale (international) fraud cases and advises companies and financial institutions regarding (financial-economic) criminal law and compliance. He also specializes in the fields of extradition law, freedom of expression and cybercrime, in which role he advises various large ISP's in the Netherlands and abroad about their rights and obligations in cyberspace and gives lectures on different subjects relating to cybercrime.

Legal 500 has described Newitt as a 'rising star' in their 2023 ranking.

Newitt has registered the following principal (and secondary) legal practice areas in the Netherlands Bar's register of legal practice areas (rechtsgebiedenregister): criminal law. Based on this registration, he is required to obtain ten training credits per calendar year in each registered principal legal practice area in accordance with the standards set by the Netherlands Bar.
